

Terms of Use

Last Updated: April 1, 2026

These Terms of Use (hereinafter referred to as "these Terms") govern your use of PhoneMaster (hereinafter referred to as "the App").

By downloading, installing, or using the App, you agree to be bound by these Terms.

If you do not agree to these Terms, please do not use the App.

1. App Description

PhoneMaster is a mobile utility application designed to assist users in managing media files and optimizing device storage space.

The features provided by the App include, but are not limited to:

Swipe-based media organization features (to keep or delete)

Video-to-audio conversion functionality

Secure local storage via the "Private Vault" feature

All media processing operations are performed locally on the user's device.

2. Eligibility

You must be at least 13 years of age to use the App.

By using the App, you represent and warrant that: you meet the aforementioned age requirement and possess the legal capacity to enter into these Terms.

3. User Responsibilities

You are solely responsible for the manner in which you use the App and for the content stored on your device.

When using the App, you agree not to engage in the following activities:

Using the App for any unlawful purpose

Storing illegal or harmful content

Attempting to reverse engineer, modify, or tamper with the App

Interfering with the proper functioning or security of the App

You are responsible for managing and backing up your personal files prior to deleting them.

4. Media Deletion and User Control

PhoneMaster allows users to delete photos and videos from their devices.

Important Note:

All deletion operations are initiated actively by the user.

Depending on the device's system settings, deleted files may be moved to the device's system photo trash/recycle bin or permanently removed.

The App assumes no liability for the accidental deletion of media files resulting from user error.

5. "Private Vault" Feature

The "Private Vault" feature allows users to store photos, videos, and contacts within a protected area inside the App. Important Information:

Files stored within the "Private Vault" remain stored locally on the user's device.

This application does not upload or access the contents of the Vault.

Users are responsible for securely safeguarding their access credentials for the Vault (if set).

The loss of access credentials may result in the inability to recover the content stored therein.

6. Video-to-Audio Conversion Feature

This application (App) provides a video-to-audio conversion feature.

When using this feature:

The video processing takes place entirely locally on the device;

No media files are transmitted to external servers.

Users are responsible for ensuring that they possess the legal rights to convert the video into audio and to use the extracted audio.

7. Privacy

Your privacy is of paramount importance to us.

Please review our "Privacy Policy," which outlines how information may be handled when you use this application.

The "Privacy Policy" constitutes an integral part of these Terms.

8. Third-Party Services

This application may utilize third-party tools for data analytics, crash reporting, or performance monitoring.

These services may collect limited, anonymized technical information, such as:

Device type;

iOS system version;

Application performance data.

These third-party services operate in accordance with their respective, independent privacy policies.

Examples of such services include:

Firebase;

AppsFlyer.

We do not share users' photos, videos, or personal contact information with the aforementioned third-party services.

9. Intellectual Property

All rights associated with this application—including, but not limited to:

Branding;

Software code—

are owned by the application's developer or its licensors and are protected by applicable intellectual property laws.

You may not reproduce, distribute, or modify this application, nor create derivative works based on this application, without prior permission.

10. Disclaimer

This application is provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis, without warranties of any kind, either express or implied.

We do not warrant that:

The application will operate without interruption at all times;

The application will be entirely free of errors or defects;

The application will be compatible with and supported by all device configurations.

You assume all risks arising from your use of this application.

11. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the developers of this application shall not be liable for any damages arising from the use of this application. Such damages include, but are not limited to:

Loss of data;

Loss of media files;

Device storage failures;

Indirect or incidental damages.

12. Amendments to Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time.

In the event that these Terms are modified:

The updated Terms will be posted within this application or on the associated website;

The "Last Updated Date" will be revised accordingly.

Your continued use of this application following any updates to the Terms constitutes your acceptance of the revised Terms.

13. Termination

We reserve the right to suspend or terminate a user's access to this application if the user violates these Terms or misuses the application.

14. Governing Law

These Terms shall be governed by and construed in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.
